
Financial Obligation Policy

Client Obligations

Clients are responsible for payment for all services as outlined in this document. Clients are asked to contact the administrative office if there are disputes regarding their financial responsibilities.

Any amount not paid by your primary insurance company is your responsibility, including deductibles, copayments, and denied claims. It is your responsibility to understand which services are covered by your policy and which are not. You are also accountable to ensure that you do not exceed the yearly maximum number of visits allowed.

Insurance

Our clinicians accept most insurances. If you have questions regarding coverage, please contact administrative staff directly at 724-609-5002 and someone will assist you.

Secondary Insurance

This office will bill secondary insurance if we are in-network and you provide the insurance information needed to do so. If any information is given to us after previous office visits have occurred, it may be too late to retroactively bill even if insurance was effective.

Co-Pays

Any applicable co-payment must be paid at the time of service or you may not be seen for your appointment. You may be charged a $5.00 service fee for any co-pay that is not paid at the time of service. Your co-pay is determined by your insurance.

Forms of Payment

Due to COVID-19, CBI is currently accepting checks and credit/debit cards for appointments held in-person. A fee of $50.00 will be charged to your account for a check returned to us for Non-sufficient funds or any other reason. Additionally, future checks will not be accepted and all payments due at the time of service must be paid via credit/debit card.

For clients participating in virtual appointments, only credit/debit cards are accepted forms of payment. A valid credit/debit card must be on file prior to your scheduled appointment as copays/deductibles are due at the time of service.

Self-Pay

Clients may have the option for self-pay. These arrangements are made on an individual basis. If this is a preference, please contact the administrative staff to discuss prior your first appointment.
